

April 7, 1988

LB 855

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Your time is up.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Thank you. Senator Korshoj, please.

SENATOR KORSHOJ: Senator Hannibal, Mr. Speaker, members, Senator Higgins said she was not antiliberal, she wasn't liberal, antibusiness or business, antilabor, labor, so forth and so on that she changes her vote from time to time. She's not on any side at all. Well I've been here and voted for a year and a half and I guess they consider me just anti, I've been pretty much against everything. My good friend, Vard Johnson, I think, he told me the other day, he said, Frankie, he said, you were born in a closet, you never could get out of that closet. Can't argue with that. We're not making much headway today. Senator Higgins, if you can hear me, I still would ask you to reconsider the proceedings here today and to clarify a point with Senator Hannibal, I do believe that a two by ten floor joist, if it's number one dense yellow pine, 16 inches on center with two rows of bridging, makes a very stiff floor, especially if you go to five-eighth inch subflooring. That would be better. The cost gets a little more. And I think probably also that if you use hem fir studs the wall will stay straighter than if you use SPF. Do you agree or not? Shake it. I'm standing here for five minutes because I had a request from Senators Higgins and Senator Labedz to try to take up five minutes. Well, I spent most of my childhood in the closet. I got an answer for that but I believe I won't put it on the record. And my folks did have some children. No, lucky for them. And I will field any questions, anybody else want to know anything? No, truthfully, I had what I consider a very good childhood. We were an extremely poor family. It was prior to the days of ADC. My mother raised a big garden. We got a hog from my uncles. We ate well. And I did pretty well until a year and three months ago and some people influenced me to run for the Nebraska State Legislature which I consented at the day before the filing deadline, and here I am. Right. I think that if Marge would talk to Senator "Bradford", make some kind...

SENATOR HANNIBAL: One minute.

SENATOR KORSHOJ: ...of a good deal here, we could get on about our business.